<<b2b_text_1 (NOTICE OF SECURITY INCIDENT / NOTICE OF DATA BREACH)>>

Dear <<first_name>> <<middle_name>> <<last_name>>,

We are writing to let you know about a cybersecurity incident involving your personal information held by Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft LLP. We deeply regret that this has occurred. Keeping personal information safe and secure is very important to us and, as you will see below, we have taken robust steps to address the incident and help protect your interests. Please read this entire letter as it contains information to help keep your information secure.

WHAT HAPPENED?

Between November 15-16, 2022, an unauthorized third party gained remote access to our systems and acquired certain information from our network, including documents containing some of your personal information. <<b2b_text_2 (Employee/Non-employee sentence)>>.

Our investigation has determined that the unauthorized third party acquired some of your personal information, including your <<b2b_text_3 (“name” and data elements)>><<b2b_text_4 (data elements cont.)>><<b2b_text_5 (data elements cont.)>>.

Targeted online monitoring has not revealed any indication that your personal information has been leaked or otherwise misused by the unauthorized third party. If this were to occur, this would expose you to a greater risk of identity theft or fraud, financial loss, and non-material loss.

WHAT WE ARE DOING

Upon learning of this incident, we quickly took steps to stop the unauthorized access and began a thorough forensic investigation with the assistance of outside cybersecurity experts. We have also reported this incident to law enforcement and relevant regulators, as well as taking steps to further strengthen our network.

Although at this time we have no indication of any misuse of your information and our investigation has not identified any suggestion that the unauthorized third-party was targeting your personal information, we have engaged Kroll to provide two years of identity monitoring services at no cost to you. Your identity monitoring services include Credit Monitoring, a Current Credit Report, Web Watcher, Public Persona, Quick Cash Scan, $1 Million Identity Fraud Loss Reimbursement, Fraud Consultation, and Identity Theft Restoration.

If you would like to take additional steps to help protect your personal information, attached to this letter are helpful resources on how to do so, including recommendations by the Federal Trade Commission regarding identity theft protection and details on how to place a fraud alert or a security freeze on your credit file where relevant.

Once again, we sincerely regret that this incident has occurred and have taken robust steps to address it. If you have any questions about the incident, please contact us at (866) 993-2408, Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Central Time, excluding major U.S. holidays.

- Fraud Alert: You may place a fraud alert in your file by contacting one of the three nationwide credit reporting agencies listed above. A fraud alert puts creditors on notice that you might be a victim of fraud. Creditors will then follow certain procedures designed to protect you, including contacting you before they open new accounts or change your existing accounts. Placing a fraud alert can protect you but also may delay you when you seek to obtain credit.
- Security Freeze: You have the ability to place a security freeze on your credit report at no charge. A security freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent but may delay your ability to obtain credit. To place a security freeze, you must contact each of the three credit bureaus listed above and may be required to provide your full name; SSN; date of birth; the addresses where you have lived over the past five years; proof of current address, such as a utility bill or telephone bill; a copy of a government issued identification card; and if you are the victim of identity theft, the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency.
- Fraud or Identity Theft: If you suspect theft, you should file a report to law enforcement, the FTC, or the Attorney General in your state. If you are the victim of fraud or identity theft, you have the right to (1) notify the police and Attorney General of your state; and (2) file a police report relating to the incident and obtain a copy of the report.
- Federal Fair Credit Reporting Act Rights: The Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) is federal legislation that regulates how consumer reporting agencies (CRAs) use your information. The FTC has summarized consumers' FCRA rights as follows: you must be told if information in your file has been used against you; you have the right to know what is in your file; you have the right to a credit score; you have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information; CRAs must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information; CRAs may not report outdated negative information; access to your file is limited; employers need your consent to receive your reports; you may limit "prescreened" credit and insurance offers based on your credit report; you may seek damages from violators. Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information about these rights, you may go to www.ftc.gov/credit or write to: Consumer Response Center, Room 13-A, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, D.C. 20580.
- State-Specific Notices. Residents of the following states should review the following information:
 - For District of Columbia residents: You may contact the Office of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia, 441 4th Street NW, Suite 110 South, Washington D.C. 20001, <https://www.oag.dc.gov/>, 1-202-727-3400.
 - For Maryland residents: You may contact the Office of the Maryland Attorney General, 200 St. Paul Place, Baltimore, MD 21202, <http://www.marylandattorneygeneral.gov/>, 1-888-743-0023.
 - For New York residents: You may consider placing a Security Freeze on your credit report. For more information on a Security Freeze or on how to avoid identity theft, contact the New York Department of State Division of Consumer Protection (<http://www.dos.ny.gov/consumerprotection/>; (800) 697-1220) or the New York State Office of the Attorney General (<http://www.ag.ny.gov/home.html>; (800) 771-7755).
